Joint Liquidators' Remuneration and Expenses

You will note that no resolutions have been passed in respect of my post appointment remuneration and expenses. At this time, it is too early to predict the level of work that will need to be undertaken as this is largely dependent on the outcome with the Company's stock and other assets. Therefore, I propose to write to creditors in a few months' time to request they fix the basis of my remuneration.

Other Information

Those creditors who have not already submitted a claim are requested to send details to me at the above address. Formal notice to this effect is enclosed together with a claim form, which should be completed and returned as soon as possible.

If you contend that you have any form of security or reservation of title over goods supplied in respect of any amount owed to you by the Company please contact this office in writing immediately.

I shall be pleased to receive from any creditor information on any concerns they may have about the way in which the Company's business was conducted and on any potential recoveries for the benefit of the estate. A creditor questionnaire is enclosed for this purpose.

"A Creditors' Guide to Liquidators' Fees" is available to download at https://www.ouryclark.com/assets/pdf/Voluntary_Arrangements_A_Guide_for_Creditors_on_Insolvency_Practitioner_Fees_Version_1_April_2021.pdf. Should you require a paper copy, please send your request in writing to me. A copy will be provided at no cost.

Further information on the insolvency process may be found on the R3 Creditors website <http://www.creditorinsolvencyguide.co.uk/>.

The Joint Liquidators are bound by the Insolvency Code of Ethics when carrying out all professional work relating to an insolvency appointment.

Prior to the Joint Liquidators' appointment, a review of ethical issues was undertaken and no ethical threats were identified.

A privacy notice as required by data protection legislation is available at <https://www.ouryclark.com/privacy-statement.html>

Should you have any queries, please contact Boyd Yeung at this office.

OPTING OUT OF RECEIVING DOCUMENTS

The consequences of opting-out

As previously advised, most future documents will not be sent to creditors by post. Nevertheless, the liquidator is required to inform creditors of their rights to opt out of receiving documents.

Creditors have the right to elect to opt out of receiving further documents about the Liquidation unless:

- (i) the Insolvency Act 1986 requires a document to be delivered to all creditors without expressly excluding opted-out creditors;
- (ii) it is a notice relating to a change in the office-holder or the office-holder's contact details; or
- (iii) it is a notice of a dividend or proposed dividend or a notice which the court orders to be sent to all creditors or all creditors of a particular category to which the creditor belongs.

Opting-out will not affect the creditor's entitlement to receive dividends should any be paid to creditors.

Unless the Insolvency (England & Wales) Rules 2016 provide to the contrary, opting-out will not affect any right the creditor may have to vote in a decision procedure or a participate in a deemed consent procedure in the proceedings although the creditor will not receive notice of it.

A creditor who opts out will be treated as having opted out in respect of any consecutive insolvency proceedings of a different kind in respect of the same company.

How to opt out

A creditor may at any time elect to be an opted-out creditor.

The creditor's election to opt out must be by a notice in writing authenticated and dated by the creditor.

The creditor must deliver the notice to the Joint Liquidators (details below).

How to opt back in

The creditor may at any time revoke the election to opt out by a further notice in writing, authenticated and dated by the creditor and delivered to the Joint Liquidators (details below).
